

Case File no: 4356. John W.

Born: 1886 (living in Camberwell at time of application)

Date of application: 1894

Age: 8 years

John's father died in May 1894 of paralysis which was believed to have been a result of jumping into the canal the previous winter to save a drowning child. His mother was left with 5 small children and was too poor to look after all of them without some help. She did some washing to earn money but did not receive much. She had been ill for a while and as she could not work until she recovered she was reliant on poor relief. There was no welfare state as we know it today. John's uncles and aunts were keen to help as much as possible but they were also poor with their own families to support. One of his uncles hoped to give some assistance to John's mother and any children who remained in her care once the result of the application to the Waifs and Strays Society was known. It was hoped that the Society would be able to look after John and his younger brother, Edward.

The Society agreed to look after John and he went to live with foster parents at Great Waldingfield, Suffolk. He remained there until October 1900 when he was transferred to the "House-Boy Brigade, Kensington." The aim of this institution was to train poor boys for domestic service. While in the home they were sent out to assist the servants of private families in the neighbourhood, at a charge per hour.

IMPORTANT.

This page must be filled up with a full and particular account of the child, its parents, family, &c.

When signing this page please say whether "Rev.," "Mr.," "Mrs.," or "Miss."

Mrs W of 5, Harding St has only been known to me a few months - but her children have come regularly to my Sunday School since they were old enough to come - & for some months when I held a Saturday School they came regularly. The Rev. J. T. Rowe my colleague in the Trinity College Mission speaks highly of her. He is in Canada now but will be home at end of July. Sister Katherine of 11 Addison Square, Camberwell would also speak well for her.

Mr James W who died was better known to my colleague Rev. J. T. Rowe than myself - but I believe he was a sober & hardworking man.

Mr John W & his surviving brother is well known to me & I can speak without hesitation of his good character & steadiness. He is a hardworking man with four children of his own who however hopes to give some assistance towards support of the widow & those 3 children (or 4) who may remain at home with her. Hence he cannot offer any help towards support of applicants.

I have had occasion to visit Mrs W frequently of late & have been pleased with her patience under great difficulties & her affection for her children & yet her strong determination to do what was best for them.

James W the father of applicant jumped into the Canal last Winter to save a person from drowning. This is thought to have brought on a sort of Paralysis from which he died in May.

Mrs W is certainly unable to support 5 small children - but her brother-in-law John W promises some help, & the Parish we believe will provide a very little out-door relief, & she hopes to earn a little by washing.

DIETARY FOR GIRL'S RECEIVING HOUSE FOR WAIFS AND STRAYS.

Summer

Breakfast

7.30 a.m. Sundays, bread and butter, with cocoa.

Winter.

8 a.m. Week-days, porridge and milk, and bread ; and bread and dripping, with milk and water, on alternate days.

1 p.m.

Dinner.

Sunday, meat, vegetables, rice pudding, or stewed rhubarb or fruit in summer.

Monday, soup, with thick round of bread, and milk pudding, alternating with boiled apple or rhubarb pudding.

Tuesday, Irish stew with rice and carrots, or a dripping crust.

Wednesday, boiled suet pudding with treacle.

Thursday, meat and green vegetables, with a little bread.

Friday, soup and bread, and a milk pudding.

Saturday, baked suet pudding with raisins, apples or carrots.

Summer 6 p.m.

Tea.

Sundays, bread and butter, and tea.

Winter 5.30.

Week-days, bread and dripping, and bread and treacle alternating with milk and water.

The following table shows the arrangement of the girls' time in the Marylebone Home:—

	6 or 6.30	to 7.45	7.45	9 to 12.15	12.45	2 to 4.15	5	5.30	6 to 7	7
MONDAY TO FRIDAY	Rise.	Housework.	Prayers and Breakfast.	School.	Dinner.	School.	Tea.	Housework.	Play or Walk (in Summer).	Prayers and Supper.
SATURDAY				Housework and Walk.		Needlework and Darning
SUNDAY				Sunday School, Short Service, and Walk.		Sunday School or Children's Service.

Time tables, however, in themselves show but little; they represent only what is done. How and why things are done gives to them their real significance. May we ask any of our readers who are interested in children, to visit the Home itself, and they will learn more about it in half an hour's visit than hours of explanation can give? And those of them who look upon boarding-out as the only satisfactory method of dealing with homeless children may, if they will come, be brought to allow that children can enjoy a natural life even within the walls of a "Home."

*ENEMIES OF CHILDHOOD. No. 1.—Drink.*BY THE REV. J. W. HORSLEY, M.A., Rector of S. Peter's, Walworth.

IN whatever department of social reform people are interested, they cannot proceed many steps before finding the stumbling block of intemperance in their path. In many cases, indeed, it seems not so much a stumbling block as a flint wall against which probably sixty per cent of the rooms in our workhouses, are filled by those whose loss of liberty, or of reason, or of health, whose expensiveness to the State are due, directly or indirectly to their habitual and excessive use of intoxicants. "Crime is condensed they dash themselves in vain, only to fall back bruised and bleeding. It is a commonplace and admitted fact, that three-quarters of our prison cells, half of the beds in our hospitals and Poor Law Infirmaries, at least a third of the wards in our asylums, and beer," is a statement I ventured to make some years ago, which expresses with bitter truth, although not of course with entire accuracy, what is the case with regard to one burdensome class of the community. With respect to our Asylums, the complaint of

A MATCH SELLER.

"WILL YOU BE MY FRIEND?"

THE following are a few of the cases recently brought before the Committee. They have been accepted by the Society as free cases, as the relatives are entirely unable to help. It is therefore suggested that individual friends might come forward and make themselves responsible for these special cases by guaranteeing £18 a year (7s. a week), or any less sum, towards the support of one of the children mentioned below. The Society earnestly pleads for immediate help in respect of these particular cases. Further information respecting any case will gladly be supplied on application, and subscribers are invited to take a personal interest in the child selected.

30828. PERCY T. B. Aged nine. This lad was adopted immediately after his birth by a woman who had just lost her own baby. She and her husband brought him up as their own until the husband's death two months ago. The widow has to go out to earn her own living and now has neither the means to support the boy nor the time to supervise and train him. There is no knowledge of the boy's own parents or relatives, and the Society has been asked to carry on the work begun by this good woman nine years ago, and to make a man of the boy.
30802. FRANK LEONARD G. Aged six. One of four fatherless children under the age of eight. Father died in May last, and the mother, in her efforts to work for her little one's support, is handicapped by bad eyesight.
30530. LEONARD J. C. Aged nine. One of three children who have lost their mother by cancer. The home has since been under the notice of the N.S.P.C.C. Now comes an appeal to the Society in these words: "The boy may be made a man of if taken at once from his surroundings, which are most terrible—please do your utmost to remove him at once and so save another soul."
30651. OLIVIA A. G. Aged eight. Father dead and mother, suffering from dropsy and heart disease, is unable to work. The mother's brother, who is described as having done his utmost for his sister and her children, is prepared to keep the mother and one child, but cannot do more.
30798. WILLIAM E. W. Aged twelve. Father unknown, this boy, deserted by his mother a woman of most unsatisfactory character, has been brought up by the good couple in whose charge he was left when she disappeared eight years ago. Adverse circumstances prevent their keeping him any longer. A veritable waif, "One of the least of these," the Church cannot refuse to adopt him.
30533. NELLIE A. W. F. Aged seven. One of a large family, mother dead and father, owing to ill-health, unable to work. Nellie had found a home with an elder brother, who has now enlisted and whose home has consequently been broken up. "A sad, deserving case," write those interested.
30660. ROBERT R. B. Aged eight. Mother died four years ago, and father died last March. The boy is described as a good little chap, and is surely worth considering as a possible asset to the nation in the days to come. A brother of sixteen is already in the Navy.
30847. GEORGE E. D. Aged ten. One of five children whose father, a private in the army, died as the result of an epileptic fit. His widow is ineligible for a pension and is quite unable to maintain her five little ones.
30634. ALFRED H. M. Aged eight. One of three children whose father never married their mother. Now he has married another woman, and the three wronged little ones are left to be supported by the mother. A woman of weak health she can do no better than earn 7s. a week and her food at a butcher's shop.
- 30543-4. GEORGE and RICHARD E. Aged eight and six. Father, an ex-soldier, experienced misfortune after leaving the army, and died two years ago, his health having been undermined by want and privation. He left five young children. The mother by casual work endeavoured to maintain the children. Then came tales of her association with bad characters, and now another little mouth has been added to those which were so often insufficiently fed before.
30556. ANNIE M. L. Aged six and a half. Five little ones to keep on her earnings of 10s. a week as a charwoman is the situation facing this child's mother. Six years ago the father died, and under the guise of friendship and a home offered to her little ones further trouble has come to the mother. The case is very strongly supported by the district visitor.
